

Press release

Entry form for ORC European Championships now open

Although it is still mid-winter, spring will be here soon enough. In Oxelösund, the little gem on the east coast of Sweden, we are getting ready for the big summer event – the ORC European Championships on 11-17 August. Send your application now!

Go for the trophy – it's time to sign up

Boats, racing, and the sea are natural parts of everyday life in Oxelösund. Now we are excited about the opportunity to show off our beautiful area during the coming championships. From 11 to 17 August 2019, Europe's most skilled crewmen will conquer the Oxelösund waters in the quest for the European trophy. To date, 18 yachts have applied.

Read more about the ORC European Championships and sign up now: <http://orc2019.oxss.nu>

"World-class racing in my back yard"

In the last ORC European Championships in Poland 2017, Patrik Forsgren crew won the C class as well as the Corinthian. This experienced skipper, with a range of national and international victories, was raised in water nearby Oxelösund.

- I've sailed these waters since I was a kid. The mix of archipelago and open sea right on our doorstep is the perfect background for challenging racing. I'm really happy that Oxelösund gets the opportunity to arrange the ORC championships and I'm looking forward to coming home. If we're able to get the trophy, it's even better!

Book accommodations

Make sure you book your accommodations as soon as possible. Get tips on accommodations in Oxelösund or nearby Nyköping here:

www.visitoxelosund.se/boende

www.nykopingsguiden.se/bo

Looking forward to seeing you here next summer!

Best regards,

Oxelösunds Segelsällskap

Hans Johansson orc2019@oxss.nu

Roger Eriksson orc2019@oxss.nu